M'CHESNEY SCORES AGAIN.

The racing at Worth yesterday was fully up to the splendid sport that has been given at this popular course in the first four days of the present meeting. The favorable weather drew out by far the largest crowd of the week, which was noticeably augmented by the big half-holiday attendance.

The feature race of the day was the Alpine Stakes, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds and upward, with $1,000 added. Nitrate was made the favorite, being held at 3 to 1 in the betting, but he failed to run inside the money, the winner turning up in C. B. Campbell, against whose chances as good as 8 to 1 could be had. To a good start Peaceful shot to the front, followed by C. B. Campbell and Ethel Wheat. Peaceful continued in the lead and turned for home two lengths in front, appearing the winner, but in the final eighth C. B. Campbell, which had always been second, closed up on him fast and easily outstayed him to the wire, winning by one length. Peaceful was under a stout drive all through the final furlong, but stood punishment gamely, getting second place easily from J. V. Kirby by a length. The latter finished stoutly. Ethel Wheat was the victim of a weak ride and, besides, was pocketed almost through the entire stretch. When she got clear sailing in the closing strides she came with a rush. Nitrate also finished resolutely. Talpa showed some early speed. MacGyle ceased to be a serious contender by the time the last quarter had been reached. The stake was worth $1,640 to the winner.

McChesney, as was naturally expected, took the third race, a dash of one and one-eighth miles for all ages but he had to be driven out all through the last eighth. Illowaho led by a good margin until well straightened for home where McChesney running next to the inside rail closed up steadily on him, winning in a drive by a neck from John McGurk, which beat Illowaho the same distance for second place. McChesney was pocketed when turning for home, compelling Buchanan to take him next to the inside rail to get an opening. John McGurk came with a rush at the end, nipping Illowaho on the post. Bragg fell away badly beaten when turning for home.

The day's first race, a dash of six furlongs for three-year-olds, resulted in a close and exciting finish, four of the field going under the wire together. Pretorius won by a nose from Charley Thompson, which beat Leviathan the same distance for second place with Hargis a head back of Leviathan. Pretorius saved ground when turning for home by going next to the inside rail and finished fast and strongly. Charley Thompson faltered slightly when entering the last quarter but rallied fast in the last sixteenth and finished with a rush. Leviathan and Hargis also finished strongly. It was strictly a four-horse race throughout.

L'Etrienne proved to be much the best in the second race, a dash of five furlongs for all ages. She ran Fort Wayne into early submission and then came away easily, winning by one length from Vincides, which beat Andes the same distance for second place. Vincides was outrun in the first half, but closed up ground fast in the final eighth and finished strongly. Andes made up much ground in the last quarter. Fort Wayne ran well for about a half mile. Ahola showed early speed, but appears to be nowhere near herself. Sarah Maxim ran well up to the turn for home.

Irene Lindsey ran to her best form in the fifth race, a dash of five furlongs for all ages, winning easily by one and one-half lengths from Money Muss which beat Duellist the same distance for second place. Money Muss made a bold but ineffectual attempt to close up on the winners in the final eighth. Duellist tired noticeably when the pinch came. The race was strictly a three-horse affair throughout.

The last race, a dash of one and an eighth miles for three-year-olds and upward, resulted in a hollow victory for Marque. First Hub Prather and then Little Elkin held command, the latter leading at the mile post, but along here Marque was called on and went to the front in a stride fairly running away from the field. She won in a canter by one and one-half lengths from Hayward Hunter which beat Obsolete Simon two lengths for second place.

The betting was the heaviest of the week and the attendance one of the largest that ever visited this track.

MORRIS PARK RACING.

Concerning features of the Morris Park racing of Thursday the Sun of Friday says:

"Lucien Lyne, the jockey whose services for next season are sought after by James R. Keene, J. B. Haggin and John A. Drake, gave another splendid exhibition of riding at Morris Park yesterday when he landed three winners, Christine A., Wealth and Hermencia, and finished third with Oom Paul. In each instance Lyne displayed superior judgment in placing his mounts, rode with fearlessness and strength, and yet had something up his sleeve all the time. Though Lyne's father came here the other day to talk over Mr. Keene's offer to the boy to ride in England next year, no definite conclusion has been arrived at. In fact it is the impression among turfmen that father and son are rather opposed to a trip abroad, and that they will ultimately accept Mr. Haggin's proposition, which embodies a salary of $15,000, with first call on the jockey's services.

"Including the Belle Meade Stakes, Colonel Bill has won five consecutive races, having captured the Oriental, Omnium and Ocean handicaps, together with an overnight event for all ages. Because of these performances turfmen are divided in the opinion as to whether Colonel Bill is the best three-year-old colt of the year.

"During the races yesterday J. H. Alexandre and S. S. Howland, representing the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, rode over the Westchester steeplechase course and measured the jumps. At the conclusion of the trip Mr. Alexandre said:

"We find that the jumps are perfect and that the course is in fine condition, which means that we shall see some fine steeplechasing before this meeting ends. Next year the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association will see to it that there is a general standard for the jumps at all the race courses operating under our jurisdiction, so that the sport may be furthered in every way."

"Starter Pettingill's work with the barrier yesterday was the best that he has done since C. J. Fitzgerald was taken ill. In all six races Mr. Pettingill got the fields away in splendid style, every horse breaking at the word of command, so that not one received a handicap at the post. There was a delay of seven minutes at the barrier in the Bronx Handicap due to the unruly conduct of Unmasked, though his rider, Spencer, was in no way to blame. But when the barrier was let go, the horses went away like a troop of cavalry.

"J. A. Bennett saw starter Fitzgerald for a few moments on Wednesday and was the first person to visit the sick man's room since he was taken home from Saratoga. Bennett says Mr. Fitzgerald is slowly recovering.

"Frank Farrell's horses, with the exception of several two-year-olds and yearlings, will be sold at auction at Morris Park before the races tomorrow. Blues, Bonibert, Colonel Padden, The Musketeer, De Reszke and others will be placed under the hammer. As Tom Welsh will train exclusively for Julius Fleischmann next year, Farrell is on the lookout for a new trainer.

"Musette, who was successful in the Bronx Handicap in 1900 and 1901, established a record at the Winner—B. c, by Laureate—La Tosca (trained by W. Hayward). Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Chuctanunda broke running, made the most of his advantage, forced a stiff pace to the stretch, where he drew away decisively and was easing up at the end. Blues, slow to get in his stride, was apparently beaten at the start and was fully extended following the winner's pace and ran a game race. He ran in Farrell's colors in spite of having been sold at auction in the paddock before the race to A. J. Joyner for $7,000, not half his value. He is generally understood to have been bought in. Only one outside bid was made of $6,500, and that by J. E. Madden. Wild Thyme, outclassed and always outrun, put up a good fight.

Winner—B. g, by Paraphane, dam by Self Conceit (trained by H. S. Page). Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Self Protection, skillfully ridden, waited until the last quarter before making his run, closed unexpectedly well, but was lucky to have been better than third. Inspector Stevens and Adjidaumo came strong at the end and beat Fulminate, which was pulled up to a walk in the last sixteenth after secure of second place. But for running over Judge Phillips at the last jump and losing a half dozen lengths he would have won. Judge Phillips was much the best and was cantering with a long and winning lead, when he struck the last jump and fell.

Winner—B. f, by Ben Strome—The Humber (trained by E. L. Graves). Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Eugenia Burch practically forced the pace throughout and was the gamest at the end. Hurstbourne ran a good race and was tiring in the last furlong, but responded gamely to punishment. Merry Acrobat, particularly favored by the wet going, closed up with a rush in the last quarter. Astarita failed to stay. Sergeant also tired right at the end. Fire Eater, nearly left, made up fifteen lengths on the leaders. Judith Campbell and Gold Money ran poorly.

Scratched—34887 Athel, 115; 34694 Kite Star, 112; 34559 Erbe, 95; 35130 Mayor Graham, 90; 35573 Athelroy, 100.

Winner—Ch. f, by Rossington—Valuable (trained by J. McLaughlin). Went to post at 3:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second handsly. Rossignol, favored by the going, which was quite wet, led under restraint throughout and was much the best in the going. Rockwater, handicapped by the track conditions, was under pressure almost from the start and put up a game stretch run. Flora Pomona, apparently beaten at six furlongs, kept coming at the end. Lux Casta tired badly from following the winner's pace.

race and track, 1:13, which still stands. The mare broke down hopelessly on Monday.

"Several of the big layers are coming in for adverse criticism just now for a practice that has been prevalent in the ring in a small way for a long time. It is charged that they put up particularly enticing odds against certain horses and then refuse to accept bets at the figures displayed.

"Jockey Bullman has practically agreed to ride for John W. Schorr next season, provided, of course, that he receives a new license from the stewards of the Jockey Club. The contract of Jockey Minder, who is riding for August Belmont at present, expires on Dec. 15.

"Jack Joyner will train H. T. Oxnard's horses for the rest of the season. They always run in the name of the Albemarle Stable so that Joyner must receive part of the credit for Wealth's victory in the Bronx Handicap yesterday.

"Jockey Willie Shaw could not ride yesterday because of a severe attack of malaria. Jockey Wonderly is still unable to attend to business because of an ulcerated sore throat."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

August Belmont has purchased from H. M. Ziegler, of Cincinnati, the two-year-old filly, Nimini, by St. Simonmimi—Catherine filly, which Mr. Ziegler gave $325 at Tuesday's sale of English thoroughbreds at the Horse Exchange. The filly is a granddaughter of St. Simon and comes of royal blood on her dam's side, and Mr. Belmont paid Mr. Ziegler $1,050 for her. This was just 100 per cent interest for an investment of forty-eight hours. Henry Ziegler's purchases at this sale, added to those already made, increase his list of two-year-olds and yearlings to forty-three colts and fillies. Trainer Charles Hughes will have ample material to work on for next season, and the Ziegler stable bids fair to take an important part in the distribution of the spoils in 1903.

MONDAY'S FULL CARD

should enable you to win all kinds of money. We will start the ball with a 10 to 1 shot in the first race and a 10 to 1 in the second that have been "prepped" at a distant track and should win easily. We are due today for five winners out of six and from the reports of our large corps of experts stationed at Harlem, Hawthorne, Worth and wherever there is a horse in training, we are convinced no better opportunity for making money will be afforded this season than is afforded today, Monday.

We pick winners because we have the money necessary to maintain a competent force of track experts. We spend money to make money. We'd be fools not to spend at least $1,500 per week for good reliable winning information, wouldn't we? Think it over.

Also sold at news stands northwest and southeast corners Clark and Madison sts.; Sherman, Grand Pacific, Wellington and Great Northern Hotels; cigar stand in rotunda, 185 Dearborn st.; cigar store, 267 Dearborn st.

JAMES IS AT MORRIS PARK.

This season is the beginning of the end of this beautiful race course, and next year when this beautiful spot is cut up into city lots there will remain nothing but memories of the past and some of JAMES' FAMOUS COUPS. It is here early in the "eighties" that I had some of the best battles with "BOOKIES," and yet JAMES is on top of the turf, while some of the "BOOKSPORTS" are lying with their "dead ones" in the cemetery adjacent under the turf. But me to the GRAND DAZZLE act this week, and you can bet every cent you've got that will be brought out of the cold storage at this meeting to earn their winter oats. I will hand out several for the heaviest plays of the year. From what I know of them from their work they'll be ripe "pippins," and no mistake. They'll make some of the good sprinters look like a lot of fat poodle pups. The people that have these, like "Brer Fox," have been laying low, awaiting their opportunity for some "killings." You'll not have to root to win—all you need do is to root for a price—the rest is easy. Here's your chance now if you want to win out of a bundle of shekels, for these will be the juiciest persimmons that have been shaken from the tree this fall. They'll "skaddoo" down the "ECLIPSE COURSE" like skyrockets, and the others will never know which way they went. These are now all in the cold storage and will be served up to you "piping hot." Terms for SIX SPECIAL WIRES (in cipher code) $10, payable in advance, which will include a copy of a SPECIAL LIST OF WEEKLY WORK-OUTS. A copy of "HOW TO BET SUCCESSFULLY" will be mailed free to any one sending their name and address.

SPECIAL OFFER Should you be unable to play yourself, send me a commission of $25 or $50 and I will place $5 or $10 straight on each of my SPECIALS, mailing you the information each morning. When playing for you I do not charge for my information, but deduct 20 per cent. of the net weekly winnings for my labor. Winnings are remitted at the end of each week by money order. Subscription for wires or accounts should be sent at once to take advantage of the numerous good things mentioned above. Address

FREDMAN'S TIPS.

They are the real thing—95 PER CENT. OF THEM WIN. This fact cannot be disputed. We do not publish a "handicap" sheet and only name from 8 TO 12 HORSES per week. But they are WINNERS REGARDLESS of price and if you are not one of those people who want to GET RICH QUICK and will be satisfied with $15 TO $25 PER DAY on a $25 "bank" roll send us $3 for a six days' trial and satisfy yourself. YOU CAN DO IT. REMEMBER We only name one or, at the most, two horses per day, and if you are in earnest and really WANT TO MAKE MONEY you must play only what we wire you and play the limit WITH THE FULLEST CONFIDENCE. We make no errors (bar accidents or badly judged rides). Our years of experience stand as a guarantee that you will get MORE THAN A RUN for your money.

Went to post at 2:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Pretorius saved ground by being taken next to the inside rail when turning for home and finished fast and resolutely. Charley Thompson faltered just after entering the last quarter, but rallied in the last sixteenth and came with a rush at the end. Leviathan tired just a shade in the last eighth, but recovered quickly in the closing strides and would probably have been second in another stride. Hargis also finished stoutly under a determined ride and was right there. The others were always outrun.

Turning for home, he was pocketed and had to swing to the inside rail for an opening. He steadily wore down Illowaho in the last eighth under a hard drive. John McGurk came with a rush at the end and ran a good race. Illowaho showed much speed and stood a long stretch drive with gameness. Bragg fell away badly beaten when turning into the last quarter.

Went to post at 2:11. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. The bad start confined the race to the first three, the rest of the field being practically left at the post. Eleanor Howard was lucky, showed considerable speed and finished stoutly. Orrie Goan ran to his best form. Lysbeth ran fairly well. Santa Ventura and Assessment closed up strongly from a very bad beginning. Liasso never tried after the start. There is no correct form to the race except as to the first three.

 Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Zoroaster, lucky and skillfully reserved, made good with a brilliant stretch run and won going away. Slipthrift got away badly and was sent after the flying pacemaker, overcoming a long lead in the first half and had the race apparently won in the stretch, but was caught napping at the end and suffered from a weak finish. St. Finnan, away running, led for seven furlongs and held on remarkably well. He is a greatly improved horse. Six Shooter closed a big gap but tired in the last fifty yards. Himself, badly handled and messed about, was a good horse in his own going. The others were hopelessly outrun.

Her pull in the weights allowed her to win, but she had to be ridden to the limit to stall off the rush of Albula at the end. The latter is as game as a pebble and ran a sparkling race, but could not concede the weight to the winner. He always held the others safe. Provost finished strongly under a hard drive. Red Monk does better at a long distance but hung on gamely for the entire journey.
 Overweights—Sir Tom Tiddler, 5 pounds.

 Went to post at 3:46. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. McManus outlasted his company and played with the field, but had to be shaken up a little at the head of the stretch. He won going away. Both bandages on his front legs became loose during the race. Trent the Mere was pulled up at the start and was easily the best of the others. Verna K. had no trouble in securing third place. Sauber fell at the fifth jump and Irkutsk at the fifteenth. The latter was very lame when going to the starting point and is a poor excuse for a jumper.
